

25 December

Hello there _____,

I've already been to your house, and I wanted to leave you a little note before I head off to the next stop.

I loved seeing your decorations, your stockings, and all the excitement waiting for Christmas morning. Thank you for making my visit such a happy one.

Today is a day for enjoying your presents, spending time together, and helping one another when you can.

Remember, Christmas magic isn't just about gifts — it's about kindness, laughter, and sharing special moments

I hope you have a wonderful Christmas Day.

Take care,

Santa Claus
